DAHLIAS

LIBRARY

"JUDGE SANDERSON"

This advance list, which I am sending you, comprises the season's leading novelties and dahlias of merit, that always give the best of satisfaction. They show a variety of color and classes at reasonable prices. The first of the year my general catalog of about 350 varieties will be mailed to all my customers, or to any one free on request. The dahlias in this list and prices are the same as will be in the general catalog, but this will contain the complete list.

GEO. H. WALKER

NO. DIGHTON, MASS.

JUDGE SANDERSON (Dec.). One of the grandest and largest decoratives introduced. The flowers often are 8 to 10 inches in size, blooming freely on long, stiff stems, erect. It is of a delicate shade of pink, shaded pale rose, blending to yellow at base of petals—a shade admired by all and a leader among this class. Price $2.00

INA MACKAY (Cactus). A grand deep orange, incurved petals, blooming in profusion on good stems well above the foliage, which makes it a fine cutting variety. No doubt it is the best of its color and grand for autumn work. Price $1.00

W. F. BROWN (Peony). Color yellow, with red shadings, overlaid deep pink, of wonderful formation. The petals curl and twist which gives a grand appearance. Price $3.00

PRIDE OF CALIFORNIA (Dec.). Without doubt the very best medium red decorative on the market, blooming on long, stiff stems, well erect above the foliage. Great profusion of 6 to 8 inch flowers. Much admired by all who see it growing. Price $1.00

GRANDPA (Dec). A wonderful free blooming dahlia on stems well above the foliage; color a deep wine red with maroon markings in the center of each petal. It is a great keeper and cut flower variety. Price $1.00

EXQUISITE (Peony). This is without doubt the best scarlet peony grown. Flowers are on long stems —seven inch flowers. Each petal gives a velvet cast that brightens the flowers. Price $1.00

LADY HELEN (Dec.). A beautiful decorative dahlia of deep pink; coloring of slight veins of white tinted with cream. The giant blooms are borne on long stems often 18 inches in length, and a very free bloomer. Price $1.50

MRS. MARGUERITE STREDWICH (Cactus). This is the best incurved, perfect form cactus dahlia, I have seen. The color is a combination of pink, softening and deepening at tip and base. A grand cactus dahlia. Price $1.50

CHALLENGER (Dec.). A very large, well formed decorative of a deep salmon, shaded to yellow, with rose pink at tips; petals partly twisted; very fine. Price $1.00

ANNIE SLOCOMB (Peony). A very pretty hybrid peony, with twisted petals; a bright canary yellow back of petals, shaded a deep salmon rose; petals are of waxy appearance. The flowers are large and very attractive; certainly one of the best. Price $2.00

MRS. STILLMAN (Cactus). An incurved petal, beautiful shade of pink, blooming freely on long stems, making a fine appearing dahlia. Price $2.00

KAKADEE (Dec.). This is a very fine cream yellow with white tip, blooming profusely; every flower above the foliage. Plants dwarf; a grand leader. Price .50

MRS. CHARLES SHERBROOKE (Cactus). This is a large incurved petal cactus of a scarlet shade with reverse of old gold; one of the freest of bloomers and attractive flowers. Price .75
